We keep silent before you, Lord—we are afraid to confront our transgressions; we are terrified to face the reality of our fraud; we feel the weight of the world upon our shoulders; there are days we don’t recognize ourselves or what we have become as we keep our failings and fears inside. Help us break free from our imperfections. Bring us to our guilt that you may make us clean. You are the sanctuary where we are healed. In your steadfast love, there is restoration. In the name of our Savior, we pray. Amen.
