Creator, we come before you a broken people. In the face of all that life throws at us, we are reminded of how small, weak and helpless we are on our own. But, glory to God, we are not alone. During creation, your spirit swept across the depths of the ocean, molding the chaos into your creation. During Pentecost, your spirit again swept across those gathered there and molded them out of their chaos and despair into the body of Christ. Today, sweep again across the depths of our needs, and remold us into new creatures, people filled with your glory and power. Remake us again into the church you have called us to be. Amen.

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory forever. Amen.
