Gracious God, you have asked us to follow and we often are hesitant to take a single step. You have asked us to speak and we often remain silent. You have asked us to care for others and we regretfully think we're too busy right now with our own worries. You have asked us to witness, and we think we haven't the words. Help us to understand that your spirit will ever be present to strengthen our steps, to empower our speech, to fill us with love, and to reveal your Word through our service and actions. We have only one thing to do, to walk the path you have set before us, one step at a time. In Jesus' name. Amen.

Community Prayer with Lord’s Prayer with Dakota Koenig, Certified Lay Minister

God of Justice, We confess to you today that we often find ourselves feeling bitter, distraught, and ashamed. We far too often fail to take accountability for our sins and wrongdoings. In an effort to feel better about ourselves, we overfill our plates with tasks, hoping to atone for our misdeeds. We confess that we have trampled on the needy, choosing greed. We confess that we have brought ruin to the poor of the land, neglecting many parts of your creation. We confess that we have practiced deceit, fearful of being exposed. We confess that far too often, we choose busy-ness over the gift of your loving presence. We lament our mistakes to you, O God. We mourn the harm we have caused knowingly and unknowingly, individually and collectively. We ask your forgiveness to envelop us, inspiring us to make amends with ourselves and others. Open our eyes that we may see the lessons you place before us. Help us better love you by loving your creation. Amen

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

In response to the overwhelming love of God, let us give with a generosity that tugs at our hearts. Let our giving provide grace to those who have forgotten what grace feels like. Let our giving deliver joy to those who have forgotten what it is to walk with a lightness of heart. We give our gifts in celebration and thanksgiving for the God who knows us—and loves us still. Amen.
