Community Prayer with Lord’s Prayer with Dakota Koenig, Certified Lay Minister

O loving God, we come before you opening our hearts, minds and spirits to your Spirit. We are grateful for your presence with us in the past. We are doing our best to remain open to you in the present, even as we daily encounter ups and downs, good times and hard times, doubts and fears, hopes and dreams. These O Lord are part of the human condition, as you know, for you came to live among us so that we might with confidence understand and believe that we are understood. And it is in that belief that we can turn to you in prayer, knowing that we will be heard. Thank you Lord, for your presence among us. Thank you Lord for the gift of the Savior. Thank you Lord, for the comfort of the Holy Spirit. And thank you Lord, for loving us into being our best selves. Amen.

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

Response to the Word

Special Music

“There Is A Fountain”

Music: Early American Melody, arr. Mary McDonald
Adam Ferrara, Piano

Call to Offering and Action with Rev. Frank Hallock

Invitation and Dedication: Prayer

Mighty God, bringing our tithes and offerings to you today, we pray over them and sing your praises. Then we slink back into our day-to-day lives, hoping those gifts meet the expectations of our discipleship. You have called us to more – to speak for you, to make our testimony part of our offering, which terrifies us. Then scripture reminds us that you will provide us with the words. Give us the faith and courage to speak of your love, mercy, and compassion. In Jesus’ name, we pray. Amen.
